THE WORK OF THE KNIFE.
An Illinois Coal Miner Disemboweled.
—The Murderer at Liberty.
BELLEVILLE, Ill., Aug. 5.—Edward Mc-Gintley and John McDugall, coal miners residing near Reed station, quarreled over a girl, and on Sunday morning, during the struggle that ensued, McDugall was decidedly worsted till he pulled a murderous, looking knife and commenced slashing away at his antagonist. The blade of the knife penetrated McDugall's right side behind the arm, and was drawn across the unfortunate man's abdomen, excising a wound about twelve inches in length, from which the entrails protruded.
McGintley again plunged the knife in behind McDugall's left arm, but before he could finish his murderous work, bystanders interfered and dragged him from the almost lifeless body of his victim.

Seems To Be The Style
LEXINGTON, Ky., Aug. 5.—A fight occur-ing at Laff's saloon Monday afternoon, resulting in the mortal cutting of Jack Cleary by Dick Murphy. Cleary was cut clear across the middle, letting out all his bowels. Murphy declared that he did not want to fight, but was followed up and forced so.

THE TUG OF WAR
Likely To Be Let Loose by France and China.
LONDON, Aug. 5.—The Standard says that negotiations between France and China were definitely broken off on Sunday.

An Indiana Editor Assaulted.
WABASH, Ind., Aug. 5.—Considerable excitement was created Monday evening by an encounter between Leo Linn, editor of the "Wabash Courier," and William T. Stone, a prominent Democrat. For some time the trouble threatened to develop into a small riot. Mr. Linn last February left the Democratic party, and since then his paper has been an exponent of Republican principles. A bitter feeling was angered against Democrats by his change of front, and the attack was the culmination of the hostility. Last week the Courier printed an article in all at all, whereupon Stone interposed to retract upon himself.

Betting on the Election.
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 5.—A New York special to The Press on the presidential situation says: "Among sporting men the betting is equal on both Blaine and Cleveland. Joe McKee, of St. Louis and Washington, who was heavily on the election of Carlsle as speaker, and on the nomination of Blaine and Cleveland, has placed a good deal of money on the latter's election.
The while McKee is proverbially a good loser, and a safe and sound betting man. Since he moved back against his own preferences, at Long Branch, the other day, Phil Daily told me that he was holding about $10,000 in bets on the presidential election, and that in every case the wagers were even. He said he was now letting on states that on the general result. One even wager was made in my hearing that Pennsylvania would give Blaine 50,000 majority. Whereafter, the Wall Street broker, who told Cleveland will carry New York by a majority of 100,000, said that Blaine will carry that state by 20,000. A favorite Republican wager is that Blaine will be elected with or without New York."

Fatal Devotion to the Death.
BROWNVILLE, Tex., Aug. 5.—Near the Ranch place, Louis Trevano, a wealthy Mexican, while dismounting from his horse caught his foot in the stirrup. The horse became frightened, began plunging, and tacked upwards in the land, rendering him senseless. The animal then ran, dragging the prostrate man along the roadway for a mile. The horse finally became disentan-gled while the horse went on unharmed.
Trevano's second wife, the victim's sister, the girl, mounted her own horse and started to search for her husband.
Coming upon the mangled body—mutilated beyond recognition except by his clothing—Young Trevano was so overcome that he could not be the least. The servants found the son in the last agonies of death. They placed his father's corpse, faintly embracing it.
The father and son were celebrated for their horsemanship, and owned valuable horses at Brownsville.

A Stag Party on Elk River.
CHALMERS, W. Va., Aug. 5.—Senator Don Cameron, of Pennsylvania, Senator Kenyon, of West Virginia, and a number of prominent gentlemen of Pennsylvania, started from Chalmers this morn., and with surveys, picked out a route for a railroad down Elk River. Cameron and party own large tracts of real and timber lands on the river, and it is for the purpose of bringing the products into market that the road will be built.

Can Not Stop Whiskey That Way.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 5.—The treasury department has notified the International Distilling company of Des Moines, Iowa, that they will not be permitted to continue the practice of shipping distilled spirits across to Canada, and back into the United States, at a more easterly point, than clearance will hereafter be refused to such cargoes.

The Disabled Lydian Monarch.
NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—At the Monarch hotel office, to which the Lydian Monarch belongs, the agents are not allowed to give in a letter concerning the vessel's condition, as given in a cable from London. Mr. Burlington, one of the agents, said that the company had implicit confidence in the ability and integrity of Capt. Haggard.

A MARVELOUS STORY
TOLD IN TWO LETTERS.
FROM THE SON: "My father resides at Claver, Va. He has been a great sufferer from Scrofula, and this medicine will tell you what a marvelous cure."

Ayer's Sarsaparilla has had in his case. I think his blood must have contained the humor for at least ten years; but it did not show, except in the form of a scrofulous sore on the neck, until about five years ago. From a few spots which appeared at that time, it gradually spread so as to cover the entire body. I assure you he was certainly afflicted, and an object of pity, when he began using your medicine. Now, there are few men of his age who enjoy as good health as he has. I could easily name fifty persons who would bear witness to the fact.

FROM THE FATHER: "It is both a duty for me to state to you the benefit I have derived from the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

They visited many points of interest in the east, taking their time in seeing the sights, and on the fourth of July they found themselves at Mr. Foote's old home in Haddam, Connecticut, where the day was fully celebrated by a reunion of the Foote family. The Connecticut Valley Advertiser, of July 12th, mentions the happy gathering as follows:

"The celebration of the 'Glorious Fourth' about here was confined to a Sunday-school picnic at Turnersville and sundry family picnics about town, among the 'gatherings of the clan' one of more than usual interest was at the residence of Hon. Joel Jones, on Jones street. There was present the five only surviving children of the late Amasa Foote, of Foote's mills—now the site of the paper mill of Brown Brothers on Salmon river—E. Amelia Foote, wife of Mr. Jones; L. Maria Foote, Nelson Foote, wife and daughter of Lebanon Springs, N. Y.; Edw. T. Foote and wife, of Janesville, Wis., and John Foote, of Middleboro, N. Y. About forty years have elapsed since all of the living members had been together, and no one who knows Mr. Jones need be told that these friends were made welcome. All felt in the fullest sense 'at home.' The day proceeded the 4th of July, took two three brothers to their birthplace. Here the boys resumed the antics of forty and fifty years ago—climbing the hills, wading the river, re-discovering the ice-cold spring of water and fixing many points of interest about the home of their childhood. Before leaving, the whole party was regrettably entertained by Mr. Jones and Brown at his beautiful residence a short distance from the mill, then they ate luncheon at the great white oak tree, under whose shade the boys played and ate luncheon fifty years ago. After a visit to the burying ground where rest four generations of the Foote family the party returned. Fire-works had been provided for a proper observance of the Fourth on the grounds around Mr. Jones', and the occasion was one of great pleasure to all the participants and one long to be remembered."

The illumination by the fire was very brilliant and was seen by many in this city."

Base Ball.

A big crowd of young men and boys came down from Janesville yesterday and played a game of ball, in Illinois, with the Beloit Sunday base ball crowd. The game broke up in the sixth inning in a row, in which, to do the Janesville game justice, it must be said that a Beloit player was the aggressor, at least the county seat men had the sympathy of Beloit spectators in the move.

The Athletics of this city, and the Gas House Stars, of Janesville, played a game in this city Saturday, which was won by the visitors, by a score of 9 to 13. The Athletics made 8 of their 9 runs in the first inning. Beloit Free Press of Monday.

To Toy Gently with Fortune is Nice.

To toy with fortune, if not to great a risk, is one of the pleasantest pastimes. The wild gambling in stocks on Wall street brings to the spectator not near so readily an exercise as the investment in the drawings of the Louisiana State Lottery, at New Orleans, La., of $5 for a whole or proportionately for fractional parts. The 17th Grand Monthly Drawing will occur on Tuesday, August 25th, and any information can be had on application to M. A. Dampin, New Orleans, La.

The Weather.

At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer registered 30 degrees above zero. Partly cloudy with north wind. At one o'clock p. m. the register was 70 degrees above zero. Partly cloudy, with northwind. For the corresponding hours one year ago, the register was 52 and 75 degrees above zero.

By the combination of different articles by ignorant persons for baking powder, they render the food very indigestible, the chemical action when they enter the stomach, prevents their being digested. Dr. Price's Baking Powder is a perfect powder. No baking powder in the market that produces such good results in the oven.

The Doctor's Endorsement.

Dr. W. J. Wright, Cincinnati, O., sends the following professional endorsement: "I have prescribed DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS in a great number of cases, and always with success. One case in particular was given up by several physicians, and was called in for consultation with myself. The patient had all the symptoms of confirmed consumption—cough, night sweats, hectic fever, harassing coughs, etc. He commenced immediately to get better, and was soon restored to his usual health. I found DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS the most valuable expectorant for breaking up distressing coughs and colds."
